

STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP

BACHELORS OF SCIENCE

OVERVIEW OF THE PROGRAM:

Through online delivery, providing an opportunity for students to obtain a bachelor's degree who possess an associate degree from regionally accredited institutions, or who have 60 or more hours of transferable college credit at one, or more, regionally accredited college institution. This degree is similar in design to the Regents Bachelors of Art, except that it provides a specific or focus, to offer completes a credential for workplace readiness or career advancement.

The main objectives of strategic leadership are to streamline processes, boost strategic productivity, promote innovation and cultivate an environment that encourages employees to be productive, independent and to push forward their own ideas. Strategic leaders sometimes make use of reward or incentive programs to encourage employees and help them reach their goals. One of the main aims of a leader is to develop the capability of our people to handle change and the challenges of the future, even if those challenges have yet to be discovered.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES:

Students completing the B.S. in Strategic Leadership can provide you with everywhere from executive-level education to a welcoming community eager to assist you in realizing your career goals.
