

Internet Scavenger Hunt
ANIMALS
Updated: September, 2005
Answer Key

What function does a cat's tail serve?

A.) Balance

How many vertebrae does a cat have in its flexible spine?

A.) Thirty

<http://animal.discovery.com/guides/cats/cats.html>

What is the name of the latest dinosaur discovered?

A.) Nothronychus

What dinosaurs lived in this area? Hint: use zip code 26554?

A.) Theropods and Ornithischians

<http://dsc.discovery.com/convergence/dinos/dinos.html>

Who is Sue?

A.) The largest, most complete and best preserved T-rex

Where was she found?

A.) The Badlands of South Dakota

By whom?

A.) Sue Hendrickson

Where is she now on display?

A.) The Chicago Field Museum

<http://www.fmnh.org/sue/>

What is the scientific name for Guinea Pig?

A.) Cavia Porcellus

What is the lifespan of a Guinea Pig?

A.) Five to seven years

http://www.animaland.org/framesets/petcare_frameset.asp

What was the name of the first elephant?

A.) Moeritherium

What did it look like?

A.) It was about two feet tall and had no trunk.

<http://www.elephants.com/begin.htm>

There are many types of butterflies, pick a type and write down three facts about that butterfly.

<http://www.enature.com/fieldguides/intermediate.asp?curGroupID=2>

Take the scavenger hunt on the website listed below:

<http://www.kidsanddogs.bravepages.com/hunt1.html>

Test your knowledge of animals and take a quiz at:

<http://www.kidsplanet.org/games/quiz/>