No such notices may be displayed on any internal or external walls, doors, windows or any other surfaces including sidewalks and other walkways. Materials found

What you can do to campaign!

Some students are stumped or frightened to violate the rules above, so we’ve witnessed general lack of campaigning in the past. This section is added to the packet to aid students with ideas on how to campaign for their seat.

Due: August 30th by 4:00pm

- Use your personal Social Media accounts or a Wiki page to campaign. Create a Facebook page and invite your friends and other students to vote for you, or create a Twitter tag. I.e: #bobby4senate.
- Handout swag or food: Students in the past have had free ice-cream sundaes or cookies to students. You can rent a table in the Falcon Center Main Street for free and campaign the days leading up to the election. (Candy is popular, too)
- Make memorable campaign posters. Successful campaigns in the past have been fueled from interest in a funny campaign slogan or sign. Use Grumpy Cat to your advantage than just traditional posters (just remember to keep it appropriate for campus).
- Assemble an election team! You may feel weird talking with students by yourself and asking them for their vote so get your best friends to help shoulder your awkward burden. Get t-shirts made and meet and greet students in front of the fountain or Falcon Center on a day(s) before the election. This will make you more visible and show you already have some support; others will be more likely to follow.

Remember what you’re signing up for!

SGA isn’t your typical campus club or organization. You have important responsibilities and to make sure you fulfil your duties you must sign off on your nomination form. Below is the agreement you will turn into the advisor upon your nomination form:

“I assert that if elected I will immediately adhere/attend all Student Government policies and events listed below. I understand that failure to do so could result in removal from office.”

- Attend any special SGA meetings as called by the SGA President.
- Hold a weekly office hour.
- Volunteer for various SGA sponsored events and community service initiatives.
- Serve on committees as appointed by the SGA President.

- Attend an SGA Fall & Spring Retreat & Trainings TBA (Excuses will be made on a case by case scenario for missing each event vetting rational and unavoidable situations with other inexcusable ones.)

*Extreme violation of institutional policies and/or local, state, and federal law may constitute removal from office or candidate on ballot.
