Fall 2019 and Spring 2020 includes data on undergraduate and MAT initial program completers. Fall 2020 to Spring 2022 include data from these programs and data from the M.Ed. Special Education Initial program as well. The Special Education completer data had previously been included with Advanced program data, but since this is an initial licensure program, the data was included with the EPP's other initial licensure programs in this report.

*Includes undergraduate and MAT initial program only.
