

Sandra Scaffidi

Educational Credentials:

Certificate, Economic Development Finance Professional Training, The National Development Council, 2016.

MA, Public History with Concentration in Historic Preservation, Colorado State University, 2001.

BA, History, Binghamton University, 1998.

Teaching Experience:

Adjunct Instructor of Architecture, Fairmont State University, 2022-present.

Teaching Assistant, Colorado State University, 1999.

Professional Experience:

Owner, Practical Preservation, Fairmont, WV 2010-present.

Director of Planning and Development, City of Fairmont, Fairmont, WV, 2016-2019.

Preservation Associate, Mills Group, Morgantown, WV, 2011-2016.

Assistant Director, Main Street Fairmont, Fairmont, WV, 2009-2011.

AmeriCorps Vista Volunteer, Main Street Fairmont, Fairmont, WV 2008-2009.

Architectural Historian, KCI Technologies, Inc., Mechanicsville, PA & Morgantown, WV. 2001-2008

Selected Publications

“Defying Expectations,” Wonderful West Virginia 12/2015.

“Saving the Blue,” Wonderful West Virginia 02/2015.

“Eureka,” Morgantown Magazine 12/2013.

“Lustron Houses,” Morgantown Magazine 04/2012.

“Finding Fairmont’s History” Oral History Podcast and Walking Tour, Fairmont, WV 03/2010.

Professional Memberships:

Vernacular Architecture Forum.

National Association of Preservation Commissions.