

Number & Title of Course:

ARCH 3060 Architecture Portfolio, 3 credits

Course Description:

This course explores the methodology of creating professional and academic portfolios for Architecture students.

Course Goals:

To acquire the skills and understanding necessary to present design work through a series of different academic and professional portfolios.

Course Objectives:

- At the conclusion of this course students should be able to:
- create and apply a portfolio layout that supports what the student wishes the portfolio to say or demonstrate.
- explain the difference between a professional and academic portfolio.
- explain what kinds of material should be included in a particular kind of portfolio.
- produce a professional and/or academic portfolio.

NAAB Student Performance Criteria addressed:

A.1. Communication Skills

A.3. Visual Communication Skills

Topical Outline:

Academic Portfolio (80%) Professional Portfolio (20%)

Prerequisites:

ARCH 3000 Design III

Textbooks/Learning Resources:

Eisenman, Sara, Building Design Portfolios: Innovative Concepts for Presenting Your Work

Linton, Harold, Portfolio Design 3rd ed

Offered:

Fall, Annually

Faculty assigned:

Kirk L Morphew, Professor of Architecture