Engagement in the Falcon Mentorship Program affords the mentor/mentee is a part of the broader campus community, and as such, participants must respect the codes of social justice and harassment set forth by the university.

- Board of Governors Social Justice Policy #8

Consistent with its comprehensive mission, and recognizing that the development of human potential is a fundamental goal in a democratic society, the Fairmont State Board of Governors promotes an educational system that values cultural and ethnic diversity and understanding; that provides for the preparation of students for full and meaningful participation in a changing world; and that promotes equitable and fair treatment in every aspect of campus life and employment for all persons, regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual preference, sexual orientation, age, religion, veteran status, or disability.

- Policy on Sexual Misconduct and Sexual Assault

Fairmont State will not tolerate, in any manner, any sexual assault, sexual harassment, domestic or dating violence, stalking, hostile environments or other forms of gender or sex discrimination on campus or at any campus-related facility, or in any institution-sponsored activity, program, trip or process and complies fully with all aspects of Title IX, including the Violence against Women Act (VaWA) and Campus Sexual Violence Elimination Act (Campus SaVE) of VaWA. Violators will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of campus processes and/or the law. (2016-2017 Student Handbook)
