INTRODUCTION

At Fairmont State University we are proud to offer Greek Life - a community comprised of select fraternities and sororities. The long-standing terms "fraternity" and "sorority" refer to groups of men and women (respectively) who join together to offer fellowship, academic support, an outlet for philanthropic service to the community and institution, and the opportunity to network for future careers. They are referred to as Greek chapters because they are named according to the ancient Greek alphabet.

Greek Life has a strong and rich tradition at hundreds of colleges and universities across the United States and Canada, as well as here at Fairmont State University. The Greek system offers many opportunities to meet and connect with people, contribute to the community, and develop leadership skills. The academic benefits are significant as well. Research indicates that students who are affiliated with a club or organization are more likely to achieve academically with persistence.

The purpose of this Handbook is to reaffirm the relationship between the University and the fraternities and sororities that are recognized by Fairmont State University. Therefore, Fairmont State University recognizes student rights to free association and the tradition of a fraternity/sorority presence on campus, defines and promotes a positive relationship between Fairmont State University and recognized Greek-letter organizations, reaffirms Fairmont State University commitment to a strong and visible Greek Life option for students, and identifies standard expectations for recognition. Fraternities and sororities make tremendous contributions to Fairmont State University by complementing the academic co-curricular facets of the University community. In addition, the Greek community serves as a source of leadership development, scholarship, and social support for members while they pursue their educational goals. The Greek community recognizes that it is the responsibility of the undergraduate chapter members to encourage an atmosphere conducive to the intellectual, emotional, and moral development of its members. In recognition of the important role fraternities and sororities play, Fairmont State University will continue to assist in fostering their growth. The University is committed to assisting each chapter in promoting personal and academic excellence.

MISSION STATEMENT OF THE GREEK COMMUNITY

   a. *Chapters with higher minimum C.G.P.A. requirements will be followed instead.

ACADEMIC PROBATION
If any chapter or member falls below the minimum C.G.P.A requirement either that of the chapters by-laws or the ORSL, the following policy will be enforced:

*Minimum C.G.P.A. requirement: 2.50 (Spring 2020 onward)

  • Fall C.G.P.A. denotes Spring Probation
  • Spring C.G.P.A. denotes Fall Probation
• Will not be allowed to participate in any Greek Life events/activities (Greek recruitment, Greek Week, Homecoming etc.) that the ORSL oversees.

The member:
• Will be placed on academic probation through the ORSL.

  • Spring C.G.P.A. denotes Fall Probation
• Cannot hold an executive/leadership role in the chapter or on any councils.
• *Additional restrictions/policies may be mandated by each chapter

If the chapter or individual member’s C.G.P.A rises above the minimum C.G.P.A, the academic probation will be lifted, and activity may resume as the chapter and individual sees fit.

If the member’s C.G.P.A falls below a 2.0, removal or short-term disaffiliation is strongly encouraged by the ORSL. Disaffiliation means that the individual cannot be involved within the chapter what so ever. Disaffiliation is encouraged until the member’s C.G.P.A. rises above a 2.0.

Failure to maintain minimum academic requirements for more than one consecutive semester may result in loss of all privileges and/or recognition, subject to a hearing with the Assistant Director of Student Life.

CHAPTER ACADEMIC PLAN
All chapters must have an Academic Plan/Support System in place for their members in the event any member is found to have below the minimum C.G.P.A requirement of either the chapter itself or of the ORSL.

This plan and its processes need to be in writing and incorporated into the chapter constitution or by-laws. The ORSL must have an updated copy that includes this requirement.

  • The group’s charter will be suspended for one full semester of the following academic year and the group will lose all privileges of an active organization.
  • Any group wishing to reactivate their charter must submit a membership list to the Assistant Director of Student Life. On the list must be a minimum of five (5) full-time enrolled Fairmont State University students. These students must be in good standing and have a minimum C.G.P.A. of: 2.50 (Spring 2020 onward)

• The organization will remain on provisional status with full privileges for one year with reactivation of chartered status contingent on review by the All-Greek-Council and the ORSL.

This is to keep the number of new members needed to recruit to total at a reasonable and attainable level.

The intent of COB is to provide maximum opportunities for membership to the greatest number of chapters possible. Disciplinary Conduct Hearings. Organizations charged with hazing, or other violations of the Code of Conduct, especially those that may lead to suspension or removal of University recognition, will be required to utilize this process.

An Administrative Hearing is a formal administrative meeting between an accused organization, the Coordinator for Student Activities and Greek Life, and the Campus Judicial Officer. The Campus Judicial Officer will consider information from both parties and determine whether the organization is responsible for the charges. The Campus Judicial Officer will also determine sanction(s) if the organization is found to be responsible.

The format for the Administrative Hearing is as follows:
1. All participants are assembled and the Campus Judicial Officer explains the procedures to be followed.
2. The Campus Judicial Officer reads the charges and asks the accused organization to answer each charge with "responsible" or "not responsible."
3. The Coordinator for Student Activities and Greek Life presents their report summarizing the review and introduces any physical evidence.
4. The accused student organization introduces their narrative and any physical evidence.
5. The Campus Judicial Officer questions both parties, then allow the Coordinator for Student Activities and Greek Life and the accused student organization to ask questions of one another.
6. If there are any factual witnesses, they are called one at a time. Each witness gives a narrative, describing his or her knowledge of the event in question. The Campus Judicial Officer questions the witnesses, then the accused organization and finally the Coordinator for Student Activities and Greek Life. If a witness cannot appear at the conference, he or she may submit a written statement. However, this statement can be used only to supplement or explain other information; it cannot support a finding by itself.
7. In the event the accused organization is found responsible, the Campus Judicial Officer determines the recommended sanctions.
8. The Campus Judicial Officer notifies the parties of the outcome of the Administrative Hearing in writing. The organization will be notified within 48 business hours.
9. Accused organizations have the right to appeal the outcome of an Administrative Hearing (see appeals process).

Appeal Process:
An accused organization has the right to appeal all disciplinary findings and/or sanctions. The organization must submit a letter of appeal and any supporting documentation to the Vice President (VP) of Student Affairs within five (5) business days of the imposed sanctions. The complaint party, Campus Judicial Officer, and Hearing Officer (if applicable) have the right to submit a response to the appeal. Once the appeal is filed the following actions will take place:

The VP of student affairs will meet to consider the organization’s appeal:
If the organization accepts the findings and appeals only the sanction, the VP may:
1. Uphold the original sanction; or
2. Modify the sanction
If the organization appeals both the finding and the sanction, the VP may:
1. Uphold both finding and sanction;
2. Uphold the finding and modify the sanction; or
3. Dismiss the finding and send the case to the Campus Judicial Officer for re-evaluation.

Please Note: a new Hearing is only granted if
1. The finding of responsibility is not supported by the facts of the case
2. There is significant new evidence that was not available at the time of the original proceeding; or
3. There was a procedural error so significant that is deprived the organization of a fair disciplinary process.

The VP will modify a sanction only if it is found to be severely disproportionate to the offense. The organization is notified in writing of the committee’s decision.

SECTION 3. DEFINITIONS
1. SEXUAL HARASSMENT
Sexual harassment is unwelcome, sexual, sex-based and/or gender-based verbal, written, online and/or physical conduct.
Anyone experiencing sexual harassment in any University program is encouraged to report it immediately to the Title IX Coordinator, Title IX Investigator or a deputy. Remedies, education and/or training will be provided in response.
Sexual harassment may be disciplined when it takes the form of quid pro quo harassment, retaliatory harassment and/or creates a hostile environment.
A hostile environment is created when sexual harassment is:
  • sufficiently severe, or
  • persistent or pervasive, and
  • objectively offensive that it:
  • unreasonably interferes with, denies or limits someone’s ability to participate in or benefit from the University’s educational [and/or employment], social and/or residential program.

Quid Pro Quo Harassment is:
  • Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature
  • By a person having power or authority over another constitutes sexual harassment when
  • Submission to such sexual conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of rating or evaluating an individual’s educational [or employment] progress, development, or performance.
  • This includes when submission to such conduct would be a condition for access to receiving the benefits of any educational [or employment] program.
Examples include: an attempt to coerce an unwilling person into a sexual relationship; to repeatedly subject a person to egregious, unwelcome sexual attention; to punish a refusal to comply with a sexual based request; to condition a benefit on submitting to sexual advances; sexual violence; intimate partner violence, stalking; gender-based bullying.

Romantic or sexual relationships between a faculty member and current student, or between a supervisor and employee or between two people where one has authority or power over the other are by their nature discriminatory and are prohibited.

Exceptions are recognized for employees or students in established marriages, partnerships or relationships.
Some examples of possible Sexual Harassment include:
  • A professor insists that a student have sex with him/her in exchange for a good grade. This is harassment regardless of whether the student accedes to the request.
  • A student repeatedly sends sexually oriented jokes around on an email list s/he created, even when asked to stop, causing one recipient to avoid the sender on campus and in the residence hall in which they both live.
  • Explicit sexual pictures are displayed in an employee’s office or on the exterior of a residence hall door
  • Two supervisors frequently ‘rate’ several employees’ bodies and sex appeal, commenting suggestively about their clothing and appearance.
  • A professor engages students in her class in discussions about their past sexual experiences, yet the conversation is not in any way germane to the subject matter of the class. She probes for explicit details, and demands that students answer her, though they are clearly uncomfortable and hesitant.
• An ex-girlfriend widely spreads false stories about her sex life with her former boyfriend to the clear discomfort of the boyfriend, turning him into a social pariah on campus.
• A student grabbed another student by the hair, then grabbed her breast and put his mouth on it. While this is sexual harassment, it is also a form of sexual violence.

2. NON-CONSENSUAL SEXUAL CONTACT
Non-Consensual Sexual Contact is:
• any intentional sexual touching,
• however slight,
• with any object,
• by a person upon another person,
• that is without consent and/or by force.
Sexual Contact includes:
• Intentional contact with the breasts, buttocks, groin, or genitals, or touching another with any of these body parts, or making another touch you or themselves with or on any of these body parts; or
• The use of force is not “worse” than the subjective experience of violation of someone who has sex without consent. However, the use of physical force constitutes a stand-alone non-sexual offense as well, as it is our expectation that those who use physical force (restrict, battery, etc.) would face not just the sexual misconduct charge, but charges under the code for the additional assaultive behavior.
• Any other intentional bodily contact in a sexual manner.

3. NON-CONSENSUAL SEXUAL INTERCOURSE
Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse is:
• any sexual intercourse, however slight:
• with any object,
• by a person upon another person,
• that is without consent and/or by force2.
• Intercourse includes:
• Vaginal or anal penetration by a penis, object, tongue or finger, and oral copulation (mouth to genital contact), no matter how slight the penetration or contact.

4. SEXUAL EXPLOITATION
Sexual exploitation occurs when one person takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for his/her own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of other sexual misconduct offenses. Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:
• Invasion of sexual privacy;
• Prostituting another person;
• Non-consensual digital, video or audio recording of nudity or sexual activity;
• Unauthorized sharing or distribution of digital, video or audio recording of nudity or sexual activity;
• Engaging in voyeurism;
• Going beyond the boundaries of consent (such as letting your friend hide in the closet to watch you having consensual sex);
• Knowingly exposing someone to or transmitting an STI, STD or HIV to another person;
• Intentionally or recklessly exposing one’s genitals in non-consensual circumstances; inducing another to expose their genitals;
• Sexually-based stalking and/or bullying may also be forms of sexual exploitation

5. ADDITIONAL APPLICABLE DEFINITIONS:
Consent:
• Consent is clear, knowing, voluntary, affirmative and conscious, words or actions, that give permission for specific sexual activity.
• Consent is active, not passive.
• Silence, in and of itself, cannot be interpreted as consent.
• Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create mutually understandable permission regarding willingness to engage in (and the conditions of) sexual activity.
• Consent to any one form of sexual activity cannot automatically imply consent to any other forms of sexual activity.
• Previous relationships or prior consent cannot imply consent to future sexual acts.
• Consent can be withdrawn once given, as long as that withdrawal is clearly communicated.
• In order to give consent, one must be of legal age.
• Sexual activity with someone you know to be or should know to be incapacitated constitutes a violation of this policy.
• Incapacitation can occur mentally or physically, from developmental disability, by alcohol or other drug use, or blackout.
• The question of what the responding party should have known is objectively based on what a reasonable person in the place of the responding party, sober and exercising good judgment, would have known about the condition of the reporting party.
• Incapacitation is a state where someone cannot make rational, reasonable decisions because they lack the capacity to give knowing consent (e.g., to understand the “who, what, when, where, why or how” of their sexual interaction).
• This policy also covers a person whose incapacity results from mental disability, sleep, unconsciousness, involuntary physical restraint, or from the taking of rape drugs. [Possession, use and/or distribution of any of these substances, including Rohypnol, Ketomine, GHB, Burundanga, etc., is prohibited, and administering one of these drugs to another student is a violation of this policy.]

Force:
• Force is the use of physical violence and/or imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access. Force also includes threats, intimidation (implied threats) and coercion that overcomes free will or resistance or that produces consent (“Have sex with me or I’ll hit you.” “Okay, don’t hit me, I’ll do what you want.”).
• Coercion is unreasonable pressure for sexual activity. When someone makes clear to you that they do not want sex, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point can be coercive.
• NOTE: There is no requirement for a party to resist the sexual advance or request, but resistance is a clear demonstration of non-consent. The presence of force is not demonstrated by the absence of resistance.
• Sexual activity that is forced is by definition non-consensual, but nonconsensual sexual activity is not by definition forced.
• Use of alcohol or other drugs will never function to excuse any behavior that violates this policy.
• This policy is applicable regardless of the sexual orientation and/or gender identity of individuals engaging in sexual activity.
• For reference to the pertinent state statutes on sex offenses, please see Appendix.

6. RELATED MISCONDUCT OFFENSES (WILL FALL UNDER THIS POLICY WHEN SEX OR GENDER-BASED)
• Threatening or causing physical harm, extreme verbal abuse, or other conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person;
• Discrimination, defined as actions that deprive other members of the community of educational or employment access, benefits or opportunities on the basis of sex or gender;
• Intimidation, defined as implied threats or acts that cause an unreasonable fear of harm in another;
• Hazing, defined as acts likely to cause physical or psychological harm or social ostracism to any person within the University community, when related to the admission, initiation, pledging, joining, or any other group-affiliation activity (as defined further in the Hazing Policy);
• Bullying, defined as
  • Repeated and/or severe
  • Aggressive behavior
• Likely to intimidate or intentionally hurt, control or diminish another person, physically or mentally
• That is not speech or conduct otherwise protected by the 1st Amendment.
• Intimate Partner Violence, defined as violence or abuse between those in an intimate relationship to each other.
• A boyfriend shoves his girlfriend into a wall upon seeing her talking to a male friend. This physical assault based in jealousy is a violation of the Intimate Partner Violence policy.
• An ex-girlfriend shames her female partner, threatening to out her as a lesbian if she doesn’t give the ex another chance. Psychological abuse is a form of Intimate Partner Violence.
• A graduate student refuses to wear a condom and forces his girlfriend to take hormonal birth control though it makes her ill, in order to prevent pregnancy.
• Married employees are witnessed in the parking garage, with one partner slapping and scratching the other in the midst of an argument.
• Stalking
  • Repetitive and menacing,
  • Pursuit, following, harassing, and/or interfering with the peace and/or safety of another.
• Any other University policies may fall within this section when a violation is motivated by the actual or perceived membership of the reporting party’s sex or gender.

7. RETALIATION
Retaliation is defined as any adverse action taken against a person participating in a protected activity because of their participation in that protected activity. Retaliation against an individual for an allegation, for supporting a reporting party or for assisting in providing information relevant to an allegation is a serious violation of University policy.

SECTION 4. SANCTIONS
The following sanctions may be imposed upon any member of the community found to have violated the Sex/Gender Harassment, Discrimination and Misconduct Policy. Any person found responsible for violating the Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse policy will likely face a recommended sanction of suspension or expulsion (student) or suspension or termination (employee).*
Any person found responsible for violating the Sexual Exploitation or Sexual Harassment policies will likely receive a recommended sanction ranging from warning to expulsion or termination, depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous disciplinary violations.*
*The decision-making body reserves the right to broaden or lessen any range of recommended sanctions in the case of serious mitigating circumstances or egregiously offensive behavior. Neither the initial hearing officers nor any appeals body or officer will deviate from the range of recommended sanctions unless compelling justification exists to do so.

SECTION 5. ADDITIONAL POLICY PROVISIONS
ATTEMPTED VIOLATIONS
In most circumstances, the University will treat attempts to commit any of the violations listed in this policy as if those attempts had been completed.

FALSE REPORTS
The University will not tolerate intentional false reporting of incidents. It is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct and the Faculty and Staff handbooks to make an intentionally false report of any policy violation, and it may also violate state criminal statutes and civil defamation laws.

3. AMNESTY FOR VICTIMS AND WITNESSES
The University community encourages the reporting of misconduct and crimes by victims and witnesses. Sometimes, victims or witnesses are hesitant to report to University officials or participate in resolution processes because they fear that they themselves may be accused of policy violations, such as underage drinking at the time of the incident. It is in the best interests of this community that as many victims as possible choose to report to University officials, and that witnesses come forward to share what they know. To encourage reporting, the University pursues a policy of offering victims of misconduct and witnesses amnesty from minor policy violations related to the incident.
Sometimes, students are hesitant to offer assistance to others for fear that they may get themselves in trouble (for example, a student who has been drinking underage might hesitate to help take a sexual misconduct victim to the Campus Police). The University pursues a policy of amnesty for students who offer help to others in need. While policy violations cannot be overlooked, the University will provide educational options, rather than punishment, to those who offer their assistance to others in need.
PARENTAL NOTIFICATION
The University reserves the right to notify parents/guardians of dependent students regarding any health or safety risk, change in student status or conduct situation, particularly alcohol and other drug violations. The University may also notify parents/guardians of non-dependent students who are under age 21 of alcohol and/or drug policy violations. Where a student is non-dependent, the University will contact parents/guardians to inform them of situations in which there is a significant and articulable health and/or safety risk. The University also reserves the right to designate which University officials have a need to know about individual conduct reports pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

SECTION 6. REPORTING AND FILING COMPLAINTS
1. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS
All University employees (faculty, staff, administrators) are expected to immediately report actual or suspected discrimination or harassment to appropriate officials, though there are some limited exceptions. On campus, some resources may maintain confidentiality—meaning they are not required to report actual or suspected discrimination or harassment to appropriate University officials—thereby offering options and advice without any obligation to inform an outside agency or individual unless a victim has requested information to be shared. Other resources exist for a victim to report crimes and policy violations and these resources will take action when an incident is reported to them. The following describes the two reporting options at the University:

2. CONFIDENTIAL REPORTING
If a reporting party would like the details of an incident to be kept confidential, the reporting party may speak with:
- On-campus licensed professional psychologists, counselors and staff
- On-campus health service providers and staff
- On-campus Victim Advocate
- Off-campus:
  - Licensed professional counselors
  - Local rape crisis counselors
  - Domestic violence resources,
  - Local or state assistance agencies,
  - Clergy/Chaplains
All of the above employees will maintain confidentiality except in extreme cases of immediate threat or danger, or abuse of a minor. Campus counselors are available to help free of charge and can be seen on an emergency basis during normal business hours. These employees will submit timely anonymous, aggregate statistical information for Clery Act purposes unless they believe it would be harmful to a specific client or patient.

3. MANDATORY REPORTING
All University employees have a duty to report sexual harassment or discrimination of which they become aware, unless they fall under the "Confidential Reporting" section below. Employees must share all details of the reports they receive. Generally, climate surveys, classroom writing assignments, human subjects research, or events such as Take Back the Night marches or speak-outs do not provide notice that must be reported to the Coordinator by employees. Remedial actions may result without formal University action.
If a victim does not wish for their name to be shared, does not wish for an investigation to take place, or does not want a formal resolution to be pursued, the victim may make such a request to the Title IX Coordinator, Title IX Investigator or Deputy Coordinators, who will evaluate that request in light of the duty to ensure the safety of the campus and comply with federal law. In cases indicating pattern, predation, threat, weapons and/or violence, the University will likely be unable to honor a request for confidentiality. In cases where the victim requests confidentiality and the circumstances allow the University to honor that request, the University will offer interim supports and remedies to the victim and the community but will not otherwise pursue formal action. A reporting party has the right, and can expect, to have reports taken seriously by the University when formally reported, and to have those incidents investigated and properly resolved through these procedures.
Formal reporting still affords privacy to the reporter, and only a small group of officials who need to know will be told. Information will also be shared as necessary with investigators, witnesses and the responding party. The circle of people with this knowledge will be kept as tight as possible to preserve a reporting party’s rights and privacy.
Reports or complaints may be filed with, as appropriate, the Title IX Coordinator or Title IX Investigator. Reports can be made via email, phone, in writing or in person. Reports may also be made online at title-ix-information-report-sexual-discrimination-assault-or-misconduct.

TITLE IX COORDINATOR
The Title IX Coordinator oversees the University’s compliance with Title IX, including the resolution process described in the Title IX Investigation and Resolution Process. Inquiries about and reports regarding sexual harassment issues and/or these procedures may be made internally to:

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AND OTHER IMPORTANT DEFINITIONS
Fairmont State University reaffirms its commitment to a campus community free from sexual misconduct in all of its forms. This commitment involves continuing efforts to eliminate all forms of harassment, sexual misconduct, and interpersonal violence. These efforts include education and preventative programming, personnel training, establishment of procedures which ensure the protection of individual rights, and resources for those who believe they have experienced such conduct. Sexual misconduct may occur across a broad spectrum and between persons of the same or opposite sex. The institution prohibits all variations of sexual misconduct.

The following is a non-exhaustive list of prohibited sexual misconduct, as well as important definitions.

Sexual Harassment
Sexual harassment includes “sex-based harassment” and “gender-based harassment” and is any unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, including, but not limited to, unwelcome sexual advances; requests for sexual favors; or other verbal or nonverbal conduct of a sexual nature, including rape, sexual assault, and sexual exploitation. In addition, depending on the facts, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking may also be forms of sexual harassment.

Unwelcome Conduct
Conduct is considered “unwelcome” if a person did not request or invite it and considered the conduct to be undesirable or offensive. Unwelcome conduct may take various forms, including name-calling, graphic or written statements (including the use of cell phones or the Internet), or other conduct that may be physically threatening, harmful, or humiliating. Unwelcome conduct does not have to include intent to harm, be directed at a specific target, or involve repeated incidents.

Hostile Environment
Hostile environment exists when sexual harassment/misconduct is sufficiently serious to deny or limit a person’s ability to participate in or benefit from the College’s programs or activities. A hostile environment can be created by anyone involved in the College’s programs or activities. The College will work to make a reasonable determination if a hostile environment exists.
Quid Pro Quo Harassment
Quid Pro Quo Harassment may occur when anyone in a position of power or authority over another uses any academic or supervisory reward to subject such other person to unwanted sexual attention or subject such other person to verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. In general, quid pro quo sexual harassment means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal and physical conduct of a sexual nature by one in a position of power or influence when:
1. Submission by an individual is made either as an explicit or implicit term of condition of employment or of academic standing; or
2. Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for academic or employment decisions affecting that student or employee.

Sexual Assault
Sexual Assault involves actual or attempted sexual contact with another person without that person’s consent. Sexual assault includes, but is not limited to: intentional touching of another person’s intimate parts without that person’s consent; or other intentional sexual contact with another person without that person’s consent; or coercing, forcing, or attempting to coerce or force a person to touch another person’s intimate parts without that person’s consent; or rape, which consists of penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.

Sexual assault can be committed by persons of the same sex as well as those of the opposite sex.

Students, faculty members and staff members should understand that forced or unwanted sexual intercourse or sexual contact (as defined above), whether it involves a stranger or an acquaintance, is sexual assault.

Sexual Exploitation and Intimidation
Sexual Exploitation and Intimidation occurs when a person takes sexual advantage of another person for the benefit of anyone other than that person without that person’s consent. Examples could include prostitution, recording and/or distributing and/or viewing of images/audio of another person without their consent, and voyeurism. Anyone who engages in a sexual relationship with a person over whom he or she has any degree of power or authority must understand that the validity of the consent involved can and may be questioned. Students, faculty members and staff members should understand that apparently consensual sexual relationships, particularly those between individuals of unequal status, may be (or may become) a violation of the Sexual Misconduct Policy.

Stalking
Stalking is defined as engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his/her safety or the safety of others or suffer substantial emotional distress.

Domestic and Intimate Partner Violence
Domestic and Intimate Partner Violence is a felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of Texas, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the State of Texas.

Dating Violence
Dating Violence is violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic nature or intimate nature with the victim; and, whereas the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party’s statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Consent
Consent is knowing, voluntary, and clear permission to engage in sexual activity or contact. Each party is responsible for making certain consent is given and continued throughout the encounter. A person can withdraw consent at any time, through words or actions. Silence or absence of resistance does not constitute consent. Past consent does not confirm future consent; consent to specific activity does not imply consent to other activity; and consent with one person does not constitute consent with another person. Current or past relationships do not sufficiently constitute consent. Texas State law requires persons be 17 years of age to give consent. Consent cannot be given if force or threat of force has been used to coerce sexual activity or if a party is incapacitated.

Incapacitation
A person is mentally or physically incapacitated when that person lacks the ability to make or act on considered decisions to engage in sexual activity. Such reasons for incapacitation include the use of drugs or alcohol either voluntarily or involuntarily, being asleep or unconscious, or an intellectual or other disability that prevents a party from having the capacity to consent. Engaging in sexual activity with a person whom you know – or reasonably should know – to be incapacitated constitutes sexual misconduct.

False Accusations
A false complaint of sexual misconduct can place a permanent stigma on a member of the Austin College community, regardless of the outcome of an investigation. Therefore, false accusations are prohibited and are violations of College policy. The College reserves the right to redress through appropriate College protocol any complaint, accusation, or testimony found through an investigation to be brought in bad faith or knowingly false. This provision does not apply to reports made in good faith, even if the allegations in the report are not substantiated through an investigation.

Retaliation
Retaliation is defined as any adverse action taken against a person either bringing a complaint of misconduct or accused of misconduct. Retaliation could include, but is not limited to, threats, intimidation, coercion or discriminatory action. Retaliation against an individual who brings a complaint, participates in an investigation, or pursues a criminal charge is prohibited, and will not be tolerated. Retaliation against those accused of sexual misconduct is also prohibited.

CONFIDENTIALITY
Fairmont State University is committed to protecting the privacy of any individual(s) involved in allegations of sexual misconduct. Should a reporter/complainant choose to make a report/bring a formal complaint, investigations of sexual misconduct are done so with respect for confidentiality. Every effort will be made to ensure confidentiality to the extent feasible in order to allow the institutions to conduct a thorough review of allegation(s). Names and details of the incident will not be shared with anyone outside of the investigative effort, hearing process, and will only be shared with those who must know in order to assist in the review, investigation or resolution of a report. If the complainant requests confidentiality, the Title IX Coordinator will weigh the request for confidentiality or no investigation against the institution’s ability to conduct an investigation without revealing identifiable information, the seriousness of the alleged conduct, and the threat to the campus community. It is important to remember when sharing an incident that different employees have different responsibilities regarding confidentiality. As noted herein, responsible employees are required to report all details of an incident (including the identities of both the complainant and the alleged perpetrator) to the Title IX Coordinator.
