INTRODUCTION

All programs in Art, Music, and Communication and Theatre Arts have a strong performance orientation. Students earning a major in these areas of study must periodically demonstrate, through public performance, or exhibitions, mastery of concepts and content studied.

STUDENTS MUST:

Earn 2.0 overall GPA and, in addition, must earn a "C" or better in all their major courses.

Students applying for admission to Teacher Education must also meet the requirements of the School of Education.

Music majors must pass an end of sophomore year jury or portfolio review to continue in the program.

ART

The Fairmont State University Department of Art provides a program of study for the preparation of teachers in the visual arts, leading to the B.A. degree in Education, a B.A. degree in Studio Art, and minors in studio art and art history. The art curriculum and activities are designed to provide the highest level of professional education for the art teacher, the creative artist and the scholar of the arts, and to play a major role in the cultural life of the college campus and the community.

For completion of a B.A. degree program in the School of Fine Arts, students must:

- Pass required annual portfolio review;
 - Maintain a 2.0 overall GPA; and,
 - Earn a “C” or better in every course for the major.
- Students continuing in the Department of Art degree programs have a graduation requirement of a 2.0 overall GPA and, in addition, must also earn a “C” or better in all their major courses.
- Students applying for admission to Teacher Education must also meet the requirements of the School of Education.

STUDIO ART

The Studio Art Program is designed for students who wish to concentrate on a specific studio discipline in the visual arts. The program requires a Foundations level of course work, which focuses on skill-building, exposure to various media, and art history. The Foundations level is followed by intense study in the chosen discipline. Three tracks are available: Drawing/Painting; Pottery/Sculpture; and Cross/Electronic Media. Additionally, the department offers optional gallery management opportunities. The program is appropriate for students who wish to work as independent artists, those who are interested in the M.A.T. with a concentration in Visual Art, and for those who wish to continue their education in Visual Art at the graduate level. Yearly portfolio reviews are required for continuation in the program.

MUSIC

The Department of Music offers a Bachelor of Arts in Education Degree in Music (Comprehensive Pre K-Adult), a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Music, and a minor in music. The degree programs provide a thorough background for those seeking a career in music. Major applied areas are offered in vocal, instrumental (strings, woodwinds, brass and percussion), and piano.

The department provides excellent musical instruction for its students through a highly qualified professional staff of performing and teaching professors, a varied curriculum, and a series of sequential musical experiences and studies in all music degree programs. The department believes in exposing music students to many new and innovative educational and musical ideas as well as emphasizing the musical heritage of the past. Departmental organizations such as band, choir, small ensembles, and jazz ensemble participate regularly in productions, concerts, and activities of the college, including demonstration performances and educational touring. Opportunities are provided for music students to attend numerous recitals, productions and other musical events on and off campus. Several professional and fraternal organizations are sponsored by the department, including a student chapter of National Association for Music Education,, American Choral Directors Association, and Kappa Kappa Psi.

The Department of Music is housed in Wallman Hall. It is well-equipped with musical instruments and materials, and its facilities include an electronic piano classroom, theory room, music education room, technologically equipped classrooms and a computer lab, instrumental and choral rehearsal rooms, 18 practice rooms with Smartmusic technology, nine studios and Wallman Hall Auditorium.

See the Department of Music Handbook for requirements of concert and recital attendance, piano proficiency, ensemble participation, sophomore evaluation policy, senior recital procedure, instrument checkout policy, and model schedules.

Students must pass an end of sophomore year jury or portfolio review to continue in the program.

Students continuing in the Department of Music degree program have a graduation requirement of a 2.0 overall GPA and, in addition, must earn a grade of C or better in all their major courses.

Students applying for admission to Teacher Education must also meet the requirements of the School of Education.

COMMUNICATION AND THEATRE ARTS

The Department of Communication and Theatre Arts faculty has designed a program to provide students with a variety of choices for developing their knowledge and skills through study and performance. By building a base of performance experience through classroom exercises, public performances, and competition, students can develop communication expertise which will prepare them to meet the challenges of the future.

Students in the Department of Communication and Theatre Arts degree programs have a graduation requirement of a 2.0 overall GPA and must earn a “C” or better in all their major courses.

Students applying for admission to Teacher Education must also meet the requirements of the School of Education.

Students may choose a degree program in:

- 1) Bachelor of Arts major in Theatre Arts;
- 2) Bachelor of Arts major in Communication Arts;
- 3) Bachelor of Arts minors in either Communication Arts or Theatre Arts;
- 4) Bachelor of Arts in Education, single field, grades 5-12 in Oral Communication;
- 5) Bachelor of Arts in Education, single field, Pre-K-Adult in Theatre.

The co-curricular activities of this department are open to all students. For detailed information, see Forensics and Theatre under Student Services and Organizations in this catalog.
