The requirements for admission to Graduate Programs at Fairmont State University are listed in the Fairmont State University Graduate Bulletin and on the Fairmont State web page. You should not apply for admission to graduate study at the University unless you meet these requirements.

General Application Procedures

Please follow the steps listed below in completing this application form:

1. A completed application (including a graduate aptitude test*) is required of all students seeking to pursue graduate study, regardless of whether or not the student intends to complete a graduate degree at FSU.
2. A nonrefundable application fee of $40, made payable to Fairmont State University must accompany the application.
3. Students are eligible to register for courses once they have been admitted. Applications are considered complete when this form, the application fee, and all supporting materials are on file with the Office of Enrollment Services. Please feel free to contact the Office of Enrollment Services in order to make sure that your application is complete.
4. The Office of Graduate Studies will notify students of their admission status once a decision has been made on a complete application package.

*Graduate aptitude test is not required for Master of Science in Criminal Justice.

Admission Requirements

Applicants for admission to graduate study at Fairmont State University must have earned a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution or be in the final semester before degree completion. Official transcripts must be sent directly from the college or university that issued the baccalaureate degree, and any other schools attended, to the Fairmont State University Office of Enrollment Services.

In addition, students must submit their scores on a graduate aptitude test such as the Graduate Record Examination (GRE), Miller Analogies Test (MAT), or Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) (not required for the Criminal Justice program). Scores more than five years old are not accepted. This score requirement may be waived for applicants who already possess a master's degree. Test scores alone may not determine admission to Graduate Studies. Letters of recommendation, statements of purpose, and personal interviews may also be used to assess a student's preparedness for and probability of success in graduate school. If any of these are required, the applicant will be contacted by the appropriate Program Director.

Certain graduate programs may also have additional requirements. Applicants should contact the specific Graduate Program Director directly for more information. Applicants should contact the specific Graduate Program Director directly for more information on requirements and what constitutes a complete application.

Readmission

A returning graduate student who has not taken a graduate class at FSU for two or more consecutive academic years (summers included), must submit a new application and non refundable $40 fee, and be readmitted by the Program Director. The application must show any intervening graduate work. Official transcripts of such intervening graduate work are required. The applicable standards are those in effect when the student applies for readmission. Graduate course work more than seven years old may not be counted toward a graduate degree.

Transfer of Graduate Credit

With the approval of the appropriate Graduate Program Director and Dean of Graduate Students, a student may transfer up to twelve graduate credit hours toward a completed degree at Fairmont State University. To request a transfer of credit, complete the Transfer of Credit Form and attach it to the application.

Residency Requirement

The last eighteen (18) hours of graduate credit must be earned at Fairmont State University.

Directory information may be released on admitted or enrolled students as provided under the Family Educational Rights Privacy Act unless the student requests in writing that this information be withheld. Requests to withhold information should be sent to the Office of Enrollment Services at Fairmont State University with this application form.
