

Connecting other devices to the Campus network (i.e. wireless routers and access points)

Wireless access points and routers that are not deployed by the Office of Information Technology are strictly prohibited and will be removed from the network by the Office of Information Technology. Other network devices that are deployed by users are permitted network access at the sole discretion of the Office of Information Technology based on the device's impact on usage and compatibility with the campus network.